

RUE? Are you ready? There's an App for that...

The Wakulla County Health Department wants you to be prepared for any emergency. Visit your Smartphone provider's App Store to find these and many other FREE Apps to help you and your family prepare and react to emergencies. Be careful! There are many expensive Apps that are similar. If you like an App that costs money, keep looking. There is probably a free one that will do the job. These are examples of Apps that will help you prepare and keep you informed.

 Florida 511: Traffic updates	 Preparedness Quiz: Find out how prepared you are	 Emergency Handbook: How to take care of your family when a disaster strikes	 WCTV News	 WTXL News	 Weather Information	 Emergency Alert Button
 FL Evacuates Shelters by zip code	 First Aid	 Code Red Mobile Alert	 Tiny Flashlight Flashlight & more	 NOAA Weather	 Simple Weather Alert	 Storm Chaser: Hurricane Outlook
 AirNow – Get air monitoring information from the EPA	 Vehicle Accident Toolkit	 Are You Ready?	 ICE- In Case of Emergency: Emergency Contact	 Survival Tip of the Day	 StormEye: Weather radar
 Morse Talk: Send and Receive messages using your phone's flashlight	 FL Travel Information	 Smart Compass: Direction using camera view	 Emergency Kit Organizer: Track expiration dates of emergency kit supplies	 FEMA- Information of different types of disasters	 Disaster Survival Guide: How to be prepared to manage during a disaster
		 Disaster Recovery Log: Record information about damages to your property	 Basic Survival Guide	 American Red Cross Emergency Care info		